Education is ever evolving. Every school and district is – and will continue to be – tasked with becoming better tomorrow than they are today. It's easy to stand behind a common goal of improving our schools. It's not as simple to know how to do it.

We are excited to announce the AdvancED Connect Conference, in partnership with the Alabama State Department of Education, on October 1-2, 2019, at Frazer Memorial Church in Montgomery, Alabama.

Also, featured speakers from across the state will share new and innovated ideas to support your continuous improvement work. Regardless of your role in your institution, the conference will provide you with the knowledge and resources to enhance education across all grade levels within your organization.
